

I have experienced a high level of 'non-interruption' since I enrolled in the Indiana No-Call list. The calls used to drive me crazy. I strongly discourage any changes in FCC rules or policy changes that would the effectiveness of the current Indiana no call law.